

Dominican Trip People—please take a look to see if there is anything that you can/want to get/have to donate. Let me know and then I will take it off the list for everyone else. In most cases, 'gently used' is completely fine!! Does anyone have a medical connection to see about the medical stuff—particularly vitamins????

means most important and needed

School Supplies

- glue-Elmers, can be in refill containers or small bottles*
- tape-Duct, Masking, clear, Good brands of scotch tape for the big dispensers*
- file folders that are closed on the ends, just open on the top
- 1 inch 3 ring binders, soft or hard, 16 of these (or more)
- cardboard
- big flip charts*
- 2 good staplers*
- Handwriting notebooks (with the lines)
- Composition books
- good pens, black, red and blue

- foam sheet paper
- heavy duty paper plates
- crayons-large, for little hands

Random things

- Math games for 1-3rd graders
- Checkerboards
- Small yoga mats, or large ones that can be cut
- Good can opener
- Small prizes
- Spanish/English Dictionary (5 of these if possible)
- Bug Spray, at least 25% deet (such as off deep woods)
- Water balloons
- Regular balloons

Cleaning/organizing supplies for school:

- Hand soap (we need a few small dispensers, but the large refill ones are great)
- Sponges with scrubby sides
- Hand towels
- Lysol wipes
- 2 swiffer dusters for library
- 2-4 bootbox size clear plastic boxes for storing books
- 2-4 shoebox size clear plastic boxes for storing books

Posters (in Spanish) (I'm going to look for these here as well)

- Map of the Dominican Republic with provinces noted
- Body parts
- other room decorations (bulletin board edges, shapes, posters, etc)

Medical supplies:

VITAMINS!!!!!!* We go through 400 per week this year, and will go through close to 500 per week next year

- Childrens cold/allergy medicine (Dimetap)
- Children's cough syrup (Delsym)
- Adult cough syrup: Robitussin CF, or generic CF
- Sore Throat cough drops
- Tubes of antibiotic ointment
- Chewable Tylenol and Advil

The “This would be really awesome to have if we could get it” list

- Butcher paper, 30” wide, with a holder/cutter, table top or wall mounted—This is about $30 for a new cutter and $25 for the paper rolls
- Blender—Anyone looking to get a new blender for Valentine's Day (??) and want to ditch their working old one?
- Globe—about $45 new
- Heavy Duty paper cutter—This is about $55 new.
- Die cut press—I don't have a good read on how much this is. If you google it, you'll get a lotta presses that weigh in the tons. That ISN'T what we are looking for! ☺
